

UAB
School of Business

&

Present

Alabama Opportunities: Doing Business in China

Governor Bob Riley will be the featured speaker at an upcoming business seminar highlighting the numerous opportunities for Alabama companies to do business in China. Governor Riley will headline a faculty that includes notable business leaders, business professors and an intellectual property law expert at the event.

If your company is interested in expanding its operations or conducting business in China, this seminar is for you:

Special
Presentation by:
Governor Bob Riley

February 15, 2007
Carraway-Davie House & Conference Center
4465 Old Overton Road
Birmingham, AL 35210

- 8:00 AM – Introductions - Dr. Carol Garrison, President of UAB
- 8:15 AM – Lessons for Alabama Business: Beyond My Visit to China – Governor Bob Riley
- 9:30 AM – How to do Business in China – K. C. Pang, UAB School of Business
- 10:00 AM – What I Have Learned That You Have to Know! – Allan Staib, Tianjin Rui Si Business Planning Company, Ltd.
- 10:30 AM – Financial Considerations in Pre and Post Exporting to China – Jason Goetz, First Commercial Bank and Tom Purvis, Export Financial Services
- 11:00 AM – Essentials of Intellectual Property – F. Lane Finch, Jr., Haskell Slaughter Young & Rediker, LLC
- Noon Luncheon – The McWane Experience in China – Josh Leachman and Tom Leonard, McWane, Inc.

Registration Fee: $150/person

To Register Contact:
Cassandra Walker
walkerc@uab.edu or 205-934-8810
or
Bruce Nichols
brucenichols@uab.edu or 205-934-8846
UAB School of Business

Event Sponsor:

