

Dispute Resolution- Australia.

When disputes arise, the need for responsive, clear and effective legal advice is critical for the ongoing future of a business. We work in partnership with clients to design prevention strategies, mitigate risk and exposure, protect brand and reputation and minimise uncertainty.

Piper Alderman is a full-service, commercial law firm with offices in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Adelaide. Experienced members of our Dispute Resolution Division are located in each of those offices forming an integrated national team who work across all states, enabling our lawyers to draw on the most suitable expertise from a multitude of practice areas.

We provide tailored, cost effective legal solutions from the simplest enforcement actions to the most urgent, complex cases. Our overall aim is to provide commercially relevant and strategic advice that provides minimal disruption to your business.

Our team works across a board range of areas including:

- > Administrative law issues involving Australian statutory authorities and government departments and their decision makers
- > Building and construction litigation
- > Contractual litigation
- > Corporate litigation including mergers and acquisitions and takeovers in the public sector
- > Defamation and reputational matters
- > Employment litigation
- > General commercial litigation
- > Insolvency litigation
- > Insurance litigation whether it relates to monetary loss, property damage or personal injury.
- > Intellectual property litigation
- > Property litigation
- > Trade practices litigation
- > Trade and transport litigation.
- > Professional practice and conduct matters
- > Workers compensation.

Piper Alderman understands the working environments and business imperatives of a wide variety of organisations, including service delivery providers. We represent clients before Federal and State Courts, mediations, arbitrations, specialist tribunals and Royal Commissions. Our lawyers are skilled in the diverse and strategic ways of handling all types of disputes, ranging from traditional litigation in each Australian Court to alternative forms of dispute resolution – mediation, conciliation and arbitration.

When necessary, we have the resources and capabilities to collaborate with barristers and experts in relevant fields. Our lawyers have strong relationships with these professionals and are able to recommend appropriate barristers and experts in the context of any dispute. We have in house counsel as well.
