Conference Registration Pack

Agenda

European Regional Conference

Belfast | 11 and 12 March 2016

Friday 11 March

7.00 pm WELCOME RECEPTION AND DINNER Belfast Harbour Office

Built in 1854 the Belfast Harbour Office is one of the finest Victorian buildings in Belfast. This is the home of the Belfast Harbour Commissioners and features include stained glass windows and coats of arms of the many ports and cities with which Belfast has traded in the past.

Dinner will be served in the Barnett Room followed by a performance of traditional Irish Dancing.

Saturday 12 March

9.00 am CONFERENCE AT RIDDEL HALL

Riddel Hall is part of The Queen's University of Belfast and is located in the leafy southern part of the city.

We will be joined by the Belfast representatives of TIAG and Invest Northern Ireland, the local enterprise development agency.

Agenda

European Regional Conference

Belfast | 11 and 12 March 2016

12.00 pm LUNCH

Lunch will be served in the Isdell Courtyard at Riddel Hall.

2.00 pm TOUR OF CRUMLIN ROAD GAOL

The Crumlin Road Gaol (or Jail) dates back to 1845 and closed its doors as a working prison in 1996. During those 150 years, the Gaol has been home to executions, escapes, hunger strikes and riots. The Gaol has been fully restored and you will walk in the footsteps of over 25,000 prisoners.

7.30 pm DINNER Malone House, Belfast

Malone House was built in the 1820s. The building's last owner was William Barnett, who presented Malone House to the city of Belfast in 1946.

10.00 pm onwards NIGHTLIFE

Your coach will deliver you back to the City Centre where you will enjoy our rich nightlife.

Sunday 13 March

You will be free to explore Belfast at your leisure.
