REID AND RIEGE HOSTS TAGLAW REGIONAL CONFERENCE JANUARY 26 – 27, 2007

Hartford, CT, January 29, 2007 – Reid and Riege, P.C. hosted the TAGLaw Atlantic regional winter meeting on January 26th and 27th in Hartford, Connecticut. Lawyers from nine different law firms from Nova Scotia to Fairfax, Virginia were in attendance. TAGLaw is one of the world's largest legal networking organizations with a reputation for quality service and client satisfaction. The TAGLaw network is comprised of more than 8,000 lawyers from 150 law firms in more than 90 countries around the world.

The conference began at the historic Mark Twain House on Friday evening where attendees took tours of the historic residence, followed by a dinner and a lecture by Connecticut Associate Supreme Court Justice Peter Zarella. On Saturday, Reid and Riege hosted a half-day symposium featuring two guest speakers who addressed how in-house counsel select and manage their outside law firms. Presentations were given by Paul Beach, Associate General Counsel at United Technologies Corporation and Michael Wilder, former General Counsel from The Hartford Insurance Group. Additionally, Michael Kraft and Michael Worth from Kraft & Kennedy, Inc., a legal technology consulting firm in New York, gave a valuable presentation about legal software and how it has evolved over time. Peter Appleton-Jones, founder of the TAGLaw organization, attended the conference and gave a presentation on TAGLaw, its substantial growth since its inception 8 years ago, and future plans for the organization. "The two-day conference provided a good forum for networking with our fellow TAGLaw Member firms," said Robert Sattin, Reid and Riege Stockholder and TAGLaw Advisory Board Member. "Our guest speakers were dynamic and offered a wealth of knowledge that all in attendance found useful and valuable. Several attendees remarked that the quality of the topics of the presenters significantly raised the bar for what these conferences should offer."

TAGLaw Member Firms in attendance included: Bélanger Sauvé – Quebec, Boyne Clarke Barristers & Solicitors – Nova Scotia, Eaton Peabody - Maine, Herrick, Feinstein LLP – New York, Kelley Drye – Washington D.C., Odin, Feldman & Pittleman, P.C. – Virginia, Reid and Riege – Connecticut, Wolf, Block, Schorr and Solis-Cohen LLP – Pennsylvania and Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP – Delaware.
