

TAGLAW European Regional Meeting

Manchester | 6-8 March 2015

Kuits invite you to join them next year in creative, colourful Manchester - a city reinvented for the 21st century.

Getting to Manchester

Manchester has an award-winning international airport serving over 19 million passengers a year via 60 airlines flying direct to around 200 destinations.

Friday evening

Experience a warm Mancunian welcome with a drinks reception at one of Manchester's finest architectural landmarks, followed by dinner at a brand new restaurant overlooking the historic St Peter's Square.

Saturday morning

Presentations to be held at Old Trafford, home to the world's most recognised football club, followed by lunch and a tour that will delight sports and non-sports fans alike!

Saturday afternoon

Join us for an optional walking tour of Manchester, covering the city's themes of protest, performance and pioneer, and uncovering some of the hidden sights of the UK's second city.

Saturday evening

An exclusive dining experience in a beautiful night-time setting at the heart of Manchester's buzzing digital and creative scene, followed by a chance to sample the famous Manchester music scene and nightlife.

Kuits look forward to welcoming you to Manchester next year.

For more information, please contact:
Robert Levy - Executive Partner
Tel: +44 (0)161 832 3434
Email: robertlevy@kuits.com

"Manchester's got everything except a beach."
Ian Brown, former lead singer with The Stone Roses.

"Don't talk about what you are going to do, do it.
That is the Manchester habit."
Judge Parry

"Manchester....the belly and guts of the Nation"
George Orwell

"They do things differently here"
Tony Wilson, journalist and TV presenter

kuits

solicitors
kuit | steinart | levy LLP

3 St Mary's Parsonage, Manchester M3 2RD
tel: +44 (0)161 832 3434 email: info@kuits.com
www.kuits.com